Calming the Chaos: Parenting during times of change and transition at the holidays, during family transitions, and during emerging adolescence. This session is perfect for parents navigating the challenges of the holidays, family transitions, or the onset of adolescence. We will explore strategies to maintain stability and calm during these often turbulent times, focusing on how to help your child manage stress, adapt to change, and stay connected. Gain practical tools to create a sense of security and resilience, helping your family thrive through life's inevitable transitions.

Webinar with Phoenix Counseling: Dec 4, 7:00pm
