

The Bulldog Bugle

St. Bartholomew Catholic School

December 20th, 2024

Dear St. Bart's Community,

You are probably familiar with "Winnie the Pooh," a book by A. A. Milne. He wrote about Piglet being grateful for "the abundance he had in his life; great friends, a warm place to sleep and a few tasty haycorns to eat." As we conclude 2024, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude to all who help make St. Bartholomew's Catholic School an amazing place to be. We are a community with many gifts and talents, which are collectively shared as we work together as a village to raise each child to be filled with faith, knowledge and virtue, and who will have a positive and lasting influence in the future.

Parents, you are a critical part of all we hope to accomplish on behalf of our St. Bart's scholars. Thank you for entrusting us with your most precious gift. I am grateful for all you and your children offer to the teachers and staff each day. In the spirit of the holiday season, I want to extend my thanks to all of you for everything that you do for our school. I am reminded of my own blessings to serve as the proud principal of St. Bart's and I thank the Lord for leading me here.

May you and your families have a Christmas and New Year filled with joy, happiness and much love.

Yours in Christ,

Ginger Vance
